EWG SPRING FLING A SMASHING SUCCESS

Our first Spring Fling at Emerald Dunes in West Palm Beach was a tremendous success, with ladies from Miami to Tampa to Orlando attending. Our congratulations to the winning team of Penny White, Gayle Taylor, Lisa Stefans and Nancy Blackwood for their team's victorious 5-under-par score. Lisa won the drawing for the use of a beautiful new Infiniti, donated by West Palm Infiniti.

The second place team (1 under par) consisted of Carolyn Whatley, Mary Lynn Black, Carol Vogtman and Dina Russo. Third place went to Tracy Jackson and her guest Marty, Patti Drolet and Lillie Johnson.

In addition, the winners of the Closest to the Pin awards were Robin Curtis of Orlando, Penny White of Tampa, with Tracy Jackson winning the Longest Drive contest with a 220 yard drive! Special recognition awards were also presented to Carolyn Whatley and Joan Beaulieu for all their support, but Pat Stephenson's couldn't be presented because she was in Boston! (We'll catch up with her next time!)

Mike Anthony of Channel 12 served as a wonderful Emcee in the midst of all those women, but was not the only male in attendance. A special "attaboy" to Trish Davis' new hubby, Jeff, for being the only man to play in the event!

IN GRATITUDE TO OUR KICK-OFF SPONSORS

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank our gracious sponsors who have been so supportive in the recent Kick-Off events around the country. Mazda has been a primary sponsor in Washington, D.C., Atlanta and Los Angeles. As you may know, Mazda has set the standard with their six Mazda Golf Clinics for Executive Women throughout the country, raising much-needed funds for the Susan Komen Foundation. We very much appreciate their support of the Executive Women's Golf League, which serves as an ideal adjunct to those one-day clinics.

In addition, our hats are off to Golf Digest, The Golf Company, for hosting the cocktail receptions in Atlanta and Los Angeles. Golf Digest published their first issue of Women's Golf earlier this year, and is getting ready for their next. Complimentary issues of this excellent reading have been sent to most of our Host Clubs for distribution to our members, so if you haven't received one, be sure to ask your pro. (If they've all been distributed, have the club call us for more!)

UPCOMING KICK-OFFS

It takes months of planning and preparation before each chapter can host their kick-off activities, and each of the following chapters are busy preparing for their respective due dates!

LOS ANGELES - Rosemary Nash and Sandra Munoz have been a whirlwind of energy over the past few months, generating a tremendous amount of press and anticipation for their big day: Thursday, July 23rd. An orientation, clinic and cocktail reception by Golf Digest will round out the day at Industry Hills.

DALLAS - Sara O'Brien and Becky Powell are nearing the finish line with invitations soon to be mailed. They will be kicking off the afternoon of Saturday, September 12th, at Scotty's Golf Schools with Sandra Haynie. The event includes an orientation, clinic and cocktail reception afterwards. Over 100 of their friends and business associates have been added to the invitation list, and it promises to be a memorable event for all.

ORLANDO - Kendall Hanna, Margaret LeFils, Mimi Wyatt and Kathy Diamond have also been busy preparing for their kick-off at the Marriott's Orlando World Center Golf Club on Sunday, August 9th. The day's activities include a continental breakfast, players choice scramble (18 holes or clinic & 9 holes), followed by a mid-afternoon wine and cheese reception.

PROVIDENCE - Linda Albamonti is one heck of a trooper! She has single-handedly rounded up more than 30 women who are ready to roll. Now the challenge is the finalize their Host Club!

LAS VEGAS - Noriko Johannsen is just one step behind Linda with a number of women expressing interest, and looking for a Host Club.

PHOENIX - We're developing quite a team in Phoenix, including Ann Davison of Superstition Springs, former LPGA Touring Pro Jan Ferraris, Charlene Fisher of the Business Women's Golf Festival and Lorraine Theis, the Executive Director of the Arizona Women's Golf Association. The invitation list is growing by the day, with a kick-off tentatively scheduled for Thursday, September 10th.

Other upcoming kick-offs include: Foxfire Golf Club in Sarasota; Gateway Golf Club in Ft. Myers; Chardonnay Club in Napa; Rancho Bernardo in San Diego; Temecula Creek in Temecula; Wake Forest Country Club in Raleigh; Finley Golf Club in Chapel Hill; and Royal Golf & Tennis on Hilton Head.

For specific information on each of these events, call our office at (407) 694-2820, or contact the Host Club or Coordinator for that city.

CUTTING THE DEAL

It's a well known fact that for generations, business deals have been closed as a result of a spirited game of golf with a client. In the corporate world, they call it the cutting edge.

If you're planning to play with a client, bring them to Emerald Dunes, voted by Golf Course News as The Best Resort/Public Course to be built in America in the past 5 years.

As the home of the Executive Women's Golf League, we want to give you every advantage possible! So when you're ready to do some corporate entertaining, do it in style at the world class Emerald Dunes!

GOLF TIPS FOR BEGINNERS

To assist some of our newer players in learning about some of the subtle nuances of the game, we have highlighted a few items to remember:

1. If you make a tee time somewhere and then find that you can't play, be sure to call and cancel it at least 24 hours in advance. Otherwise you may be charged as a "no show" if they have your credit card number. After several no-shows, they may not take your tee time again!

2. When you're inclined to make that first big purchase of a set of golf clubs, talk to the pro that has been instructing you. He can make recommendations as to what's best for you based on your abilities, etc. Some companies offer "starter sets", that include only the clubs that you will absolutely need. Unfortunately, you can't always fill in the missing clubs later, although a few manufacturers do offer this service. Otherwise, you may want to consider buying the full set if you intend to play a reasonable amount of golf. But beware...don't buy based on looks alone!

3. When you feel that you're ready to start establishing a handicap, go to the pro at your club for guidance. The USGA indicates that you must be a member of a club, and that you are playing regularly. While you may not be an actual "member" in the full sense of the word, the professional at many of our host clubs may make an exception and allow you to start posting your scores in the handicap computer. The charge for this service runs between $12.00-$25.00.

ABOUT THE EXECUTIVE WOMEN'S GOLF LEAGUE...

The Executive Women's Golf League is designed to unite career oriented women who play golf through a variety of clinics, league play and outings, and help bring more women into the game. It began in July, 1991, with an eight week instructional clinic at Emerald Dunes in West Palm Beach, Florida, with 28 women who were tired of turning down corporate golf invitations. They were ready to learn how to play the game...not just how to swing the club. Since that time, other clubs and women of determination have begun more chapters throughout the country.

Each member is invited to participate in the various activities at their chapter, as well as periodic regional events, which offer tremendous networking opportunities. In addition, presentation of your membership card at EWG Host Clubs will entitle you to special green fees, and a little extra TLC! Annual dues for national membership are currently $30.00. Patron Memberships are $1,000, and have no expiration date. If you would like further information about the Executive Women's Golf League, please call (407) 694-2820, and help bring more women into the game!
